Although District 8 saw the greatest percent increase (8.4%) of individuals below poverty, it still has the lowest number of individuals living below poverty than any other district.